

HP Indigo Discontinued Presses

November 2008

HP Indigo provides technical support, maintenance services, spare parts, supplies (imaging products and operator maintenance parts) for HP Indigo presses, for at least seven years after production is discontinued.

After the seven years support period, HP Indigo will make reasonable efforts to continue to provide the above services to our customers subject to the availability of spare parts and other technical support services.

As of November 2008, HP Indigo has discontinued the products listed in the table below.

Discontinuance notices are published on the HP Indigo internet web site: <http://www.hp.com/go/indigo>
